Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Seventh Query, Caring for Others

Do you respect that of God in every person? Do you search yourself for and strive to eliminate prejudices such as those related to race, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, and economic condition? In what ways do you accept and appreciate differences among your friends and associates? Do you avoid exploiting or manipulating others to accomplish ends, however worthy?

WELCOME TO VISITORS!

If this is your first time worshipping with us, please sign the guest book and indicate whether or not you'd like to receive our monthly newsletter. Please include an email address if you have one. If you wish, introduce yourself when invited at the rise of worship.

Everyone is invited to stay for a free simple lunch after worship - it's a good opportunity to learn about Homewood.

FIRST TIME ATTENDER AWARDS are available to send three first time attenders to Annual Session 2018 for two days at no cost. If you are interested, please notify the office or George Amoss.

PEACE VIGIL

Every Friday, 5-6 p.m. Since 9/11/2001, we have held a vigil for peace every Friday evening. Join in at any time during the hour. The current focus is "BLACK LIVES MATTER" and "We Are All One People."

EVENTS TODAY (JULY 1):

HYMN SINGING, 10:00 - 10:20 a.m. in the meeting room, led by Dave Sydlik. All are welcome.

FIRST DAY SCHOOL:

School-aged children who attend Meeting with their parent(s) in July and August may join Chris Stadler and Henry Kennison for conversation, reading, and games in the nursery area or may join their parent(s) in meeting for worship. Many children are away for some or all of July and August. There will be no formal program activity. First Day School for the 2018-19 school year will kick off on Sunday, September 16th. We anticipate having one or two formal programs of interest to children in late August and early September as the children transition back to school. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact John McKusick, Megan Shook, or Susie Higgins.

MEETING FOR BUSINESS, 12:30 p.m. in the dining room. Childcare is available.

NEWS OF FRIENDS:

ROSETTA GRAHAM is happy to be home. She thanks Friends for all of the visits, which not only gave her joy but enriched the lives of the nurses who overheard conversations. One nurse from the hospital sought her out after her move to FutureCare and gave Rosetta her phone number. With tears in her eyes, she said, “If you ever want to go to court watch, call me and I’ll take you.” As Rosetta said, “God moves in mysterious ways.”

WICKER BASKET COLLECTION: JULY

The Wicker Basket recipient for July is Doctors Without Borders or Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF), an international medical non-profit which delivers emergency medical aid to people around the world. They are currently one of the few humanitarian organizations working in Yemen, where years of grinding conflict have had a devastating effect on the nation’s health system. GEDCO’S CARES FOOD PANTRY: The Pantry is low on the following items: spaghetti sauce, canned tomatoes, canned veggies, canned tuna, and canned salmon. Please leave food contributions in the box in the main floor hallway.

I am fully persuaded that if there was less tattling and scribbling and more praying, there would be happiness among us. The spirit of bitterness and malignity is like the whirlwind, that threatens to carry us away in the tempest.
